

Initiate Bill of Rights

Phi Sigma Pi is committed to a hazing-free Fraternity experience. We also are serious about the use and abuse of alcohol. We embrace diversity and encourage tolerance and acceptance. Below is the essence of our position on these three issues.

Anti Hazing Policy

Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity does not condone physical or mental (emotional) hazing of any kind, by any definition. The Grand Chapter strictly prohibits the hazing of individuals involved in any Fraternity activities, including Initiation. Hazing is defined in Article XXII, Section 1 of the National Constitution as:

“...any action or situation that recklessly or intentionally endangers the mental, physical or emotional health or safety of any individual, regardless of the person’s willingness to participate. These actions and situations include, but are not limited to: paddling in any form; creation of excessive fatigue; physical and psychological shock; scavenger hunts which involve illegal activities; one-way road trips which leave an individual to find return transportation; wearing apparel at any time or location which is not appropriate; required engagement in public stunts or buffoonery; morally degrading games or humiliating activities; compulsory consumption of any alcoholic beverages or controlled substances or non-controlled substances; the destruction or removal of any public or private property; any activity that could adversely affect the mental, physical or emotional health of the individual; and any other activities which are not consistent with the regulations and policies of the sheltering institution, or behavior considered as unbecoming of a Member of Phi Sigma Pi.”

The Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity Initiation Program should be conducted in a manner which respects the dignity of Initiates and protects their mental and physical well being. Examples of acceptable behavior include Initiation activities that promote scholarship, promote service, develop leadership skills, acquire knowledge of Phi Sigma Pi history and instill the value of fellowship amongst Initiates.

Initiate Bill of Rights

During the Phi Sigma Pi Initiation Program, Initiates have the following rights:

- The right to be treated as an individual.
- The right to be fully informed about the Initiation process. This includes dates, locations and intent of all required Initiation events, quizzes, the Phi Sigma Pi National Membership Exam and Induction in advance.
- The right to ask questions and receive true and objective answers from Members and Staff.
- The right to be treated with respect.
- The right to be treated as a capable and mature person without being patronized.
- The right to have and express opinions to Members and Staff.
- The right to have inviolable confidentiality when sharing information with Members and Staff.
- The right to make informed choices without undue pressure from others.
- The right to make one's own choice and decision and accept full responsibility for the results of that decision.
- The right to have a positive, safe and enriching recruitment and membership experience.

Phi Sigma Pi is a Fraternity of Members that treats each other with dignity and respect. There is no place for hazing in our organization and when an incident of hazing is reported, the National organization takes it very seriously. Hazing comes in many forms. Hazing includes any action that causes embarrassment, harassment, or ridicule, or any action that risks emotional or physical harm. If you are aware of hazing being conducted by Members of Phi Sigma Pi to anyone, report it by contacting the National Office at pspoffice@phisigmapi.org or 1-800-366-1916.

I have read and acknowledge the information listed in the Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity Initiate Bill of Rights.
