

Living into the Mission

A mission statement communicates an organization's purpose, the group it serves and how it will accomplish its goals. Phi Sigma Pi's Mission Statement sets your Chapter apart from other organizations on your campus, and the key to your success is to find ways to live into the mission in everything you do as a Chapter.

Phi Sigma Pi's Mission Statement

Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity is a gender-inclusive organization dedicated to: promoting lifelong learning, inspiring Members to lead, and cultivating lasting fraternal bonds, while always conducting our lives with honor. We consecrate ourselves to a life of social service with the goal of improving humanity through our principles: Scholarship, Leadership, and Fellowship.

Serving Your Members

Delivering on the promises that you made to your Members during the Initiation Program is integral to retaining Members and continuing to grow strong as a Chapter. Your commitment to the mission of the Fraternity should be evident in everything your Chapter does. The events you plan, policies you institute and opportunities you offer your Members all reflect our mission. Chapter culture matters. Use the Mission Statement to define your Chapter culture and you will benefit all Members.

Benefiting Your Campus

Everything that your Chapter does on your campus reflects on the Fraternity as a whole, and representing the mission of Phi Sigma Pi is imperative to your success as a Chapter. Anyone should be able to identify our organization's values based on the image you project on campus, the work you do to benefit the campus community and the types of students who are attracted to joining your organization.

Improving Humanity

You can't truly be living into our mission as a Fraternity unless you are thinking big about how to change the world around you. While you must start within your Chapter to develop a mission-driven culture, your impact shouldn't stop with your Chapter or even with your campus. Truly improving humanity will require all Members to dedicate themselves to applying our values in their lives outside of Phi Sigma Pi, engage in the world around them and find ways to do good for others.
