

The Tripod: Scholarship

As an honor organization, Phi Sigma Pi expects Members to maintain good academic standing. Academic standing, however, is just a small part of the scholarship ideal. Scholarship means serious, detailed study, which is much more than just going through the motions to finish a task or an assignment. Scholarship in our organization extends outside the classroom and is part of a larger “always learning” philosophy. Our Chapters hold scholarship events, and Members are encouraged to attend National events that foster the spirit of lifelong learning.

The Ritual has this to say about Scholarship: "Through the ages, the Lamp of Knowledge has symbolized man's seeking after knowledge--his efforts to shed light upon the discoveries and experiences of the race which have contributed to the betterment of mankind."

Accumulate a wealth of knowledge for the sake of all humanity

Be a great leader

Be well-rounded

Attain a vast storehouse of knowledge and benefit mankind with its use

Instilling Scholarship in Your Chapter

- Educate Members on Chapter policies and practices
- Create opportunities for Members to share their knowledge, skills and experience with other Members
- Provide support for Members struggling academically through group study hours and peer tutoring
- Incorporate learning about the local community and philanthropic organizations as part of leadership events
- Study The Ritual as a Chapter and provide a Ritual Review each term
- Celebrate Members' academic accomplishments
- Include "Fun Fact Friday" in social media posts
