

Evaluating Member Engagement

Evaluating the level of Member engagement in your Chapter can help to determine if Chapter morale is high or low. If most Chapter Members are highly engaged in various aspects of your Chapter, it's fair to say that Chapter morale is high. If they're not, it's likely that Chapter morale is low. Use this checklist to evaluate Member engagement, and then check out available resources on Chapter morale.

Questions	Most	Some	None
How many Chapter Members readily engage in discussions related to Chapter policies, Chapter events and issues impacting the Chapter?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
How many Chapter Members take the opportunity to share their opinions about the Chapter by responding to surveys, polls or questionnaires?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
How many Chapter Members engage with the Chapter via social media, including sharing events and commenting on posts?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
How many Chapter Members are eager to participate in Chapter events, as well as campus-wide events as representatives of Phi Sigma Pi?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
How many Chapter Members contribute to the process of setting goals and strategically planning for the future of the Chapter?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
How many Chapter Members are excited about recruiting new Members to join the Chapter and eagerly participate in tabling, flyering, etc.?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
How many Chapter Members are willing to serve as mentors to help Initiates and new Members get acquainted with being part of the Chapter?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
How many Chapter Members express an interest in taking on a leadership role when it is time to elect new Officers and Chairs?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
How many Chapter Members pursue opportunities to participate in National programs and events like Leadership in Action, Leadership Academy and National Convention?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>