

Meaningful Questions

As a Member of Phi Sigma Pi, there are many opportunities for you to get to know your fellow Members on a deeper level. Furthermore, asking meaningful questions during formal and informal interactions with Potential New Members and Initiates can help with relationship building early on. Here are some meaningful questions that can be used during conversations with Potential New Members, Initiate/Member Interviews and Member bonding to get beyond the surface:

- What has attracted you to joining Phi Sigma Pi?
- How do you see scholarship, leadership or fellowship already playing out in your life?
- What will becoming a Member mean to your life?
- What are you hoping to contribute as a Member?
- What are you the most proud of?
- If you could go back and change one decision in your life, what would it be?
- What is your biggest dream in life?
- What difference would it make in your life if you felt completely safe, accepted and loved?
- What's one thing that you wish people understood about you?
- What event in your life has shaped you most as a person, and how have you changed?
- If you could change one thing about yourself, what would it be and why?
- When you're home alone, and nobody else is around, how do you like to spend your time?
- If money were not an issue, how would you spend your time each day?
- How are you challenging yourself to grow?
- If you could spend a day in someone else's shoes, whose would they be and why?
- What's one thing a family member, friend or mentor taught you that completely changed your life?
- What's one thing about you that surprises people?
- Who or what has been your greatest teacher and what lesson did you take away?
- What is something you've done that made you feel supreme happiness?
- Knowing what you know now, what advice would you give your thirteen-year-old self?
- What does success mean to you?
- If you could have one "do over" in your life, what would you do differently?
- What are you most afraid of?
- If you had to choose only three adjectives to describe yourself, which would you choose?
- What is a dream you have that you have yet to achieve?
- What are you most grateful for in your life?
