(Provide an overview of the Initiate Event by reviewing The Initiate Event resource with the group.)

Here are some rules to keep in mind as you begin brainstorming ideas for your Initiate Event.

The Phi Sigma Pi Brothers' Creed

I am a Pilgrim. I come not boldly, but humbly, as I seek to uphold the ideals of Scholarship, Leadership and Fellowship.

As a Scholar, I accumulate a breadth of knowledge for the benefit of others.

As a Leader, I pursue the finest of achievements with devotion that is unselfish.

As a friend, I cherish thoughts that are kind and deeds that are noble.

As a Brother of Phi Sigma Pi, I devote myself to the ideal of social service through the ideals of my order.

Though I may become accomplished in my life, I am mindful that I will forever be a Pilgrim on my journey in Phi Sigma Pi.

Rules for Brainstorming

- Be positive
- Welcome all ideas
- Invite everyone to contribute
- Write down everything
- Build upon each other's ideas
- Strive for quantity not quality
- Focus on the future

Initiate Event Planning

Week 2 Meeting Presentation Outline

Initiate Event Planning

Creating a Tasklist

- Identify tasks
- Break into subtasks
- Establish deadlines

○ Initiate Event Planning

Once you have decided on an idea that you would like to pursue, you should create a list of tasks that need to be accomplished.

Some tasks may have smaller tasks that need to be completed. Picking up supplies is a task. Making a shopping list is a subtask.

Once you have your list of tasks and subtasks, set deadlines for when things need to be done.

○ Initiate Event Planning

When you have your list of tasks and subtasks and when they need to be completed, you can assign group members to be responsible for those items.

You will want to schedule a time to follow up on what has been accomplished and what still needs done.

You may need to set a time to check in before our next meeting.
